

Acceptance Policy

Version: 18th June 2007

This ClickandBuy acceptance policy forms an integral part of your contractual relationship with us. While we support a diverse range of business with our clients, there are certain activities which may be illegal in certain jurisdictions, or where unnecessary offence could be caused to persons. This policy is designed to address such possibilities and will be updated from time to time as and when required.

Summary

The ClickandBuy Service must not be used to send, receive, upload, download, use, re-use, offer or supply any offer or other message, information or material or to advertise, promote, sell or offer for sale any information, material or product which can be assigned to one of the following categories.

Any transaction appearing on ClickandBuy which does appear to fall onto one of these categories may be reversed and any ClickandBuy account not adhering to this policy may be suspended or terminated to prevent further breach of our guidelines.

Some of the guidelines require knowledge of applicable laws in different countries. As ClickandBuy does not have detailed knowledge of all business sectors in all jurisdictions around the world, it is ultimately the account holder's responsibility to trade only in countries where it is legal to do so. Any customer who is unsure of their legality, or disregards this guidance, is deemed to be in breach of these guidelines.

1) Illegal Adult Content

ClickandBuy will not process transactions which are related to goods or services, including an image, which is partly offensive and lacks serious artistic value such as:

- Digital content of nonconsensual sexual behavior
- Sexual exploitation of a minor
- Nonconsensual mutilation of a person or body part
- Bestiality

or any other material that ClickandBuy, at its sole discretion, deems unacceptable for sale in connection with its brand.

2) Firearms and Weapons

ClickandBuy may not be used in the purchase or sale of any physical firearm. This includes all rifles, shotguns, and handguns, whether for use in sporting, as collectibles, or curio and relic firearms, and regardless of their present working order.

Also, ClickandBuy may not be used to buy or sell ammunition, gunpowder, or tank ammunition. The term "ammunition" means ammunition or cartridge cases, primers, bullets, or propellant powder designed for use in any firearm.

This guideline does not extend to advertisements for such items. Advertisements would be permitted to be charged for using ClickandBuy.

3) Illegal Drugs & Paraphernalia

ClickandBuy may not be used to fund, in any way, the purchase of illegal drugs, or materials, utilities or paraphernalia (equipment used to administer or produce drugs) which could be construed to be for the use of administering illegal drugs.

This guideline is designed to provide clarification regarding illegal drugs. It is accepted that some drugs are classified differently from country to country, and therefore may not be illegal. As ClickandBuy does not have expert guidance for each and every country where trading may take place, any potential merchant should be directed to the Fraud Management team who will assist. However, responsibility to trade only in countries where it is legal to do so is explicitly the responsibility of the merchant. Any merchant who is unsure of their legality, or disregards this guidance, is deemed to be in breach of this guideline.

4) Stored Value Cards

ClickandBuy will generally not accept transactions which resell pre-paid debit or other stored value cards. A stored value card is defined as funds or monetary value represented in digital electronic or physical format and stored or capable of storage on electronic or physical media in such a way as to be retrievable and transferable.

As there is a possibility of some exception to these rules in certain circumstances, customers are urged to direct any query to the Fraud Management team who will assist.

5) Unauthorized Copies (infringement of copyright)

ClickandBuy cannot accept transactions which sell (or appear to sell) unauthorized copies (pirated, duplicated, backup, etc.) of software programs, video games, music albums, movies, television programs or photographs which could be in breach of copyright law in any territory.

6) Third Parties' Rights

ClickandBuy will not process transactions which are related to goods or services, including images, which are offensive, abusive, defamatory, otherwise obscene or menacing, or in breach of confidence, privacy or any other rights of third parties, or which will cause annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety.
